Church Office Hours:

Pastor Dave's Corner

Hello, Millington.

I have been given this opportunity to begin to introduce myself to you. The process will continue for as long as we are together, but for starters I will take this opportunity to share a few things.

To begin with I am not your savior. His name is Jesus. My task is to share Him with you both through words and actions. We will share Him in Worship, Sunday School, Bible study, and a weekly prayer meeting. I believe that study and prayer are the foundations of building a ministry to our neighbors and friends in the Millington area. If I am alone at these times I will begin as Jesus did by praying for a Simon and a John and a Paul and a Martha and a Mary to join me. I believe it will happen.

Women were important to Jesus and women are important here. We will work together to build ministry to and through women as well as building a men's fellowship.

I have been retired for 15 years, so I am approaching this relationship with a bit of fear and trembling. I hope I can remember how to be a pastor, but I am confident that with lots of prayer and trusting in God's guidance we can grow together.

I grew up not far from here. I am from Columbiaville back when Columbiaville had a downtown full of thriving businesses. I graduated from Lakeville High School in 1967. Back then the high school was in the building where the Middle School is now. Therefore I can honestly say that I am old school.

I had family that called Millington home back then. My cousin, Bob, graduated from Millington in 1966 (I think). We haven't seen each other in years, since our parents' generation has died off.

I will be sharing more about my life and ministry before Millington on July 14th during the worship time. Now is your opportunity to invite your friends and family to meet this stranger in your midst.

I offer you my prayers and greetings for the days to come.

Rev. David C. Collins, Pastor David, Hey you.....Your choice....

Mission Notes for July

You are all aware that we had another baby Bottle Boomerang in support of Positive Alternatives, the crisis pregnancy Center in Caro. We will be delivering the bottles to Caro by mid-July. After that time, we will know exactly how much was contributed from our church.

We are also planning to have a booth at Millington Old Fashioned Summer Festival in August. We will be selling sno-cones and popcorn again this year. Volunteers are needed. Please check with Sharon Trato to schedule a time to serve.

Millington United Methodist Church was involved in the M-15 yard sales this year along with food trucks in our church parking lot. It was well received, and we decided that we should consider participating in it again next year. More on that later.

Moment

In the beginning, God created the Heaven and the Earth! Eventually, God created you, and me. All we are, whatever we have and everything we hope for and love, comes from God. How can we give back too much to God, in whom we live and breathe and have our meaning?

THE POWER OF WARMTH

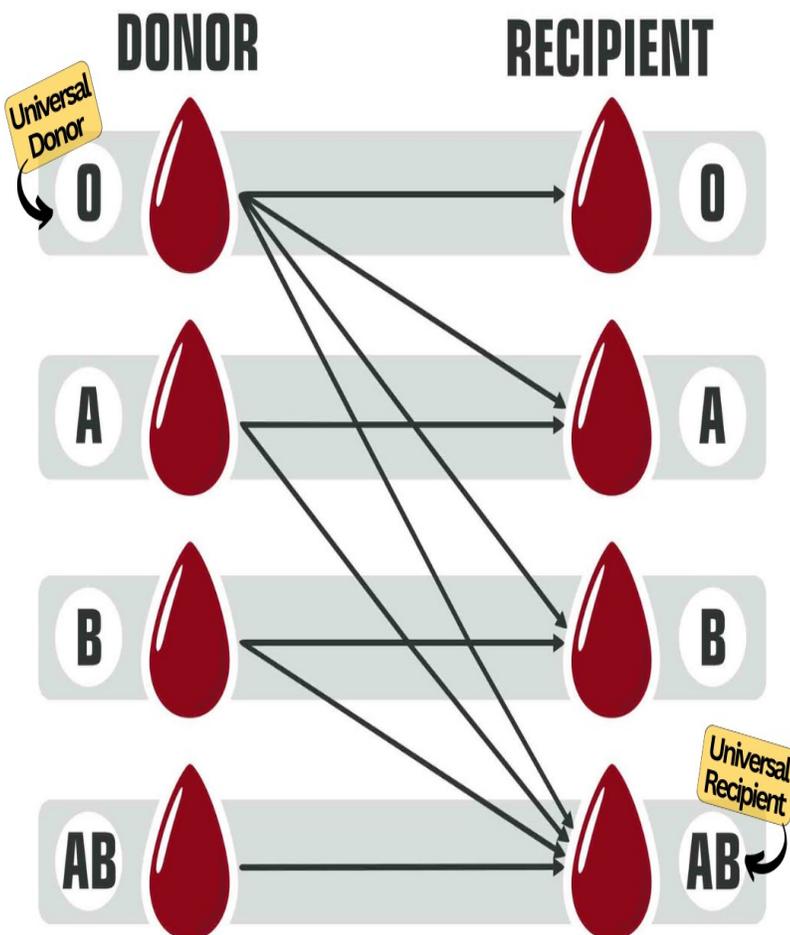

In one of Aesop's fables, the North Wind and the Sun debated who was stronger. When they saw a traveler approaching, the Sun sensed an opportunity. He said whoever could make the man remove his coat would win — and even let the Wind go first.

So the Sun ducked behind a cloud as the Wind began blowing mighty blasts of air at the traveler. But the harder the Wind blew, the closer the man pulled his coat around himself. Finally, the Wind gave up in despair.

Then the Sun emerged and smiled down on the traveler. Feeling the gentle rays, the man soon found it too hot to walk with his coat on. He felt so warm he removed one garment after another and

A declaration of interdependence

"Dependence does not destroy human personality," writes Donald F. Baillie. Instead, people are "never so fully and so truly personal as when [they are] living in complete dependence upon God." Jesus modeled this type of living by depending completely on his heavenly Father.

In that light, let it be declared and hereby celebrated ...

- That all people everywhere depend on one another.
- That everyone needs everyone else for freedom, life, love and happiness.
- That all things in the natural order depend on everything else.
- That the Earth and all planets and stars are mutually dependent.
- That this universally shared dependence comes from God and is of God.

And that each individual part of this relationship has its own role in fulfilling God's plan.

A Note from Barb...

I'd like to take this time to welcome Pastor David Collins to this church. I am challenging him to see how long he will be able to put up with me. You see, I don't have a very good record with pastors here at this church. I guess I'm a pretty difficult person to get along with. Demanding, pushy, challenging, hard to please, fussy, unbearable, harsh, and generally just intolerable.

So, my challenge to him is, if he can put up with me for longer than any of the previous pastors have, and I think the record for that is 2 years, then he will have passed the test of perseverance.

It might be good for him to read James 1:2-3 which reminds us: "Consider it pure joy, my brothers, whenever you face trials of many kinds, because you know that the testing of your faith develops perseverance.

I'm looking forward to working with Pastor David. I hope he will persevere.
